

UK2Learn Prices

September 2019 – August 2020

Immersion Programmes

To apply for a UK2Learn immersion programme, all students must complete a UK2Learn student profile form, provide a copy of their passport, a copy of their latest school grades and a recent photo.

Programme	NET Price
Private School as a boarding student:	from £895 per week
Private School as a day student:	from £850 per week
State School as a boarding student:	from £895 per week
State School as a day student:	from £550 per week
One year Immersion Programme staying with a host family	from £3,850 per term
Individual airport transfer, Heathrow	£80 each way
Individual airport transfer, Gatwick	£95 each way
Individual airport transfer, Stansted	£175 each way
Additional person in taxi, a maximum of 3 extra people	£10 per person

Included in the programme fee:

- Student to be accommodated with a local host family in their own room
- All host families have been DBS/Police checked
- Student to be a full time student at a school from Monday to Friday
- All transport costs to and from school each day
- Student to receive breakfast and evening meal with host family from Monday to Friday
- Student to receive breakfast, lunch and dinner with host family on Saturday and Sunday
- Student to be paired with a UK student that they will shadow throughout their time on the programme
- Student will attend all lessons, for example: maths, biology, photography, physical education etc
- Student may also attend all free after school clubs and activities if they are available
- Student will receive all exercise books and photocopies as required
- Student will be lent a second hand school tie and a school blazer for the duration of the programme if they are available

Not included in the programme fee:

- airport transfers
- uniform. Students must wear a black skirt or trousers, white shirt (with no logos), back socks and shoes. UK2Learn will send a detailed list of acceptable clothes that students can wear when they are at school.
- lunch at the school. This must be paid for by the student and it is estimated to cost approximately £2.50 per day
- additional excursions. These must be agreed with the agency, the parents and UK2Learn beforehand

Before a programme begins, students will be sent a welcome letter from UK2Learn detailing what to bring, what to expect from the programme, their host family and also the rules and regulations of both UK2Learn and the school they will be attending.

For a more detailed information, please visit our website or contact us:

Office: +44 1483 425500

Skype: uk2learn

Email: amackie@uk2learn.com

Website: www.uk2learn.com

